ARTICLE II

Name, Purpose, Service Area Participation and Meetings of the Corporation

Section 1. Name. The name of this corporation shall be MLSOK, INC. All the shares of stock of the Corporation are solely and wholly-owned by the Association.

Section 2. Purposes. The Corporation is to provide its MLS Service by way of its computer system as a means by which authorized Participants make blanket unilateral offers of compensation to other Participants by which cooperation among Participants is enhanced, by which information is accumulated and disseminated to enable authorized Participants to prepare appraisals, analyses, and other valuations of real property for bona fide clients and customers; by which Participants engaging in real estate appraisal contribute to common databases; and is a facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of Listing Information so Participants may better serve their clients and the public. Entitlement to compensation is determined by the cooperating Participant's performance as procuring cause of the sale (or lease).

Section 3. Service Area. The area within which the Corporation shall function will at all times be coextensive with or within the territorial jurisdiction of the Corporation.

Section 4. Participation. Participation provides access to Listing Information through the Service and use of the Service and Listing Information as developed by and/or published by the Corporation is strictly limited to the activities authorized under a Participant's licensure(s) or certification and unauthorized uses are absolutely prohibited. Participation is not intended to convey any right of access to information developed by and/or published by the Corporation where access to such Listing Information is prohibited by law. The REALTOR® principal of any firm, partnership, corporation, or the Branch Manager designated by said firm, partnership, or corporation or any appraiser licensed or certified by the State of Oklahoma to engage in the appraisal of real property as the Participant shall have all rights, benefits, and privileges of the Multiple Listing Service, and shall accept all obligations to the Multiple Listing Service for the Participant's firm, partnership, or corporation, and for compliance with the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the Multiple Listing Service by all persons affiliated with the Participant who utilize the Service.

Mere possession of a broker's license is not sufficient to qualify for Participation. Rather, the requirement that an individual or firm offers or accepts cooperation and compensation means that the Participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to list real property of the type listed on the MLS and/or to accept offers of cooperation and compensation made by listing brokers or agents in the MLS. "Actively" means on a continual and ongoing basis during the operation of the Participant's real estate business. The "actively" requirement is not intended to preclude MLS Participation by a Participant or potential Participant that operates a real estate business on a part-time, seasonal, or similarly time-limited basis or that has its business interrupted by periods of relative inactivity occasioned by market conditions. Similarly, the requirement is not intended to deny MLS Participation to a Participant or potential Participant who has not achieved a minimum number of transactions despite good faith efforts. Nor is it intended to permit the Corporation to deny Participation based on the level of service provided by the Participant or potential Participant as long as the level of service satisfies state law.

The key is that the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation with respect to properties of the type that are listed on the Service in which Participation is sought. This requirement does not permit the Corporation to deny Participation to a Participant or potential Participant that operates a "Virtual Office Web site" as defined herein, (including a VOW that the Participant uses to refer customers to other Participants) if the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation. The Corporation may evaluate whether a Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to offer or accept cooperation and compensation only if the MLS has a reasonable basis to believe that the Participant or potential Participant is in fact not doing so. The membership requirement shall be applied in a nondiscriminatory manner to all Participants and potential Participants.

Section 6. Application for Participation. Application for Participation in the Corporation's Service shall be made in such manner and form as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors and made available to any REALTOR® principal of the Association or any other association authorized by the Corporation requesting it. The application form shall contain a signed statement agreeing to abide by these Bylaws and any other applicable Rules and Regulations of the Corporation's MLS service as from time to time amended or adopted.

Section 7. Discontinuance of Corporation's MLS. Participants in the Corporation's MLS may discontinue as Participants by giving the Corporation at least thirty (30) days' written notice of such discontinuance and Participants may reapply for Participation after one (1) month of non-Participation by making formal application in the manner prescribed for new applicants for Participation provided all past dues and applicable fees are fully paid.

Section 8. Service Charges. The fees prescribed for Participation in the Corporation MLS shall be as determined by the Board as those fees are amended from time to time.

Section 9. Government. The government of the Corporation shall be vested in its Board of Directors comprised of the elected officers and nominated and elected directors as set for in Article V of these Bylaws.

ARTICLE III

Offices

Section 1. Principal Office. The Corporation shall locate its principal office in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Section 2. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation required by law to be maintained in the state of Oklahoma may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office of the Corporation. The Board may change the address of the registered office and registered agent from time to time.

Section 3. Other Offices. The Corporation may have offices at such other places, either within or without the state of Oklahoma, as the Board may designate or as the business of the Corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE IV

Sole Shareholder

Section 1. Sole Shareholder. The sole Shareholder of the Corporation is an exempt corporation under I.R.C. § 501(c)(6) and acts through the Association Board. Subject to the limitations of the Certificate of Incorporation, the Oklahoma General Corporation Act and the authority of the Shareholder, the Board, shall be responsible for managing the affairs of the Corporation except to the extent such management responsibilities are delegated by the Board to officers or other representatives of the Corporation.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. Unless otherwise designated by the Shareholder, the annual meeting of the Shareholder of the Corporation shall be held for the purpose of electing directors of the Corporation as provided in Article V, Section 3 and for the transaction of such other proper business as may come before such meetings at such time, date and place as the Association Board shall determine by resolution.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Shareholder for any purpose or purposes may be called by the Association Board subject to the Certificate of Incorporation, the Oklahoma General Corporations Act and the Bylaws of the Corporation with respect to special meetings.

Section 5. Notice of Meetings. Except as otherwise required by law, the Association shall give notice of each meeting of the sole Shareholder, whether annual or special, not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting. Every notice of a meeting of the sole Shareholder shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, also shall state the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

Section 6. Waiver of Notice. Whenever these Bylaws require written notice, a written waiver thereof, signed by the persons entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall constitute the equivalent of notice. Attendance at any meeting by a majority of the Association Board shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when those persons attend the meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. No written waiver of notice need specify either the business to be transacted at, or the purpose or purposes of any regular or special meeting of the sole Shareholder.

Section 7. Adjournment of Meeting. When the sole Shareholder meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting, the sole Shareholder may transact any business which it may have transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days or, if after the adjournment, the Association Board shall fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting, the Association Board shall give notice of the adjourned meeting.

Section 8. Quorum and Voting. Except as otherwise required by law, at any special or annual meeting of the sole Shareholder, no action may be taken unless a majority of the Association Board entitled to vote at the meeting, are present in person or by proxy, which shall constitute a quorum for all purposes at any meeting of the sole Shareholder. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting or any adjournment thereof, the Association Board entitled to vote who are present, in person or by proxy, or, in the absence thereof, any officer entitled to preside at, or to act as secretary of, such meeting, may adjourn such meeting to another place, date or time.

Each sole Shareholder Association Board member shall have one vote and a plurality of the votes of the Association Board members cast shall determine all elections and, except when the law requires otherwise, a majority of the votes cast shall determine all other matters.

The sole Shareholder Association Board members may vote by voice vote on all matters. However, upon demand by an Association Board member entitled to vote, or their proxy, the sole Shareholder Association Board members shall vote by ballot. In that event, each ballot shall state the name of the Association Board member or proxy voting, and such other information as the Corporation may require under the procedure established for the meeting.

Section 9. Organization. Such person as the Board may have designated or, in the absence of such a person, the highest ranking officer of the Corporation who is present, shall call to order any meeting of the sole Shareholder, determine the presence of a quorum, and act as chairman of the meeting. In the absence of the Secretary/Treasurer of the Corporation, the chairman shall appoint a secretary for the meeting.

Section 10. Conduct of Business. The chairman of any meeting of sole Shareholder shall determine the order of business and the procedure at the meeting, including such regulations of the manner of voting and the conduct of discussion as is deemed in order.

Section 12. Sole Shareholder Election of Directors; Terms of Office of Officers and Directors. Upon election by the sole Shareholder, the individuals so appointed and elected shall be considered officers-elect and directors-elect and shall assume their respective offices on January 1st.

The term of office for officers and directors of the Corporation shall be on a calendar year basis. In the event one (1) or more director is/are not elected by the sole Shareholder, and upon notice of such failure of election, the President of the Corporation shall select a proposed Participant or Participants, as required, subject to confirmation by the Board of the Corporation, for submission as nominee(s) to the sole Shareholder to be considered for election to fill the vacancy or vacancies existing.

The certificates shall be signed by the President or President-Elect and the Secretary-Treasurer, which signatures may be in facsimile if the certificates are to be countersigned by a transfer agent or registered by a registrar, and the seal of the Corporation shall be affixed thereto. The certificates shall contain on the faces or backs such recitations or references as are required by law.

Section 3. Replacement of Certificates. No new certificates shall be issued until the former certificate for the shares represented thereby shall have been surrendered and canceled, except in the case of lost or destroyed certificates for which the Board may order new certificates to be issued upon such terms, conditions, and guaranties as the Board may see fit to impose, including the filing of sufficient indemnity.

Section 4. Transfer of Shares. Shares of the Corporation may be transferred by endorsement by the signature of the owner, its agent, attorney, or legal representative, and the delivery of the certificate. The transferee in any transfer of shares shall be deemed to have full notice of and consent to the Bylaws of the Corporation to the same extent as if it had signed a written assent thereto.

Section 5. Reasonable Doubts as to Right to Transfer. When a transfer of shares is requested and there is reasonable doubt as to the right of whoever is seeking the transfer, the Corporation or its transfer agent, before recording the transfer of the shares on its books or issuing any certificate therefor, may require from whoever is seeking the transfer reasonable proof of its right to the transfer. If there remains a reasonable doubt of the right to the transfer, the Corporation may refuse a transfer unless whoever is seeking the transfer gives adequate security or a bond of indemnity executed by a corporate surety or by two individual sureties satisfactory to the Corporation as to form, amount, and responsibility of sureties. The bond shall be conditioned to protect the Corporation, its officers, transfer agents, and registrars, or any combination of them, against any loss, damage, expense, or other liability to the owner of the shares by reason of the recordation of the transfer or the issuance of a new certificate for shares.

ARTICLE XIII

Indemnification; Insurance

Section 1. Persons. The Corporation shall indemnify, to the extent provided in Sections 2, 4, or 6: (1) any person who is or was a director, officer, agent, employee, or member of a committee of the Corporation, and (2) any person who serves or served at the Corporation's request as a director, officer, agent, employee, partner, or trustee of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise.

Section 2. Extent - Derivative Suits. In case of a suit by or in the right of the Corporation against a person named in Section 1 by reason of holding a position named in Section 1, the Corporation shall indemnify that person if they satisfy the standards set forth in Section 3 for expenses (including attorneys' fees, but excluding amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with the defense or settlement of the suit.

Section 3. Standard - Derivative Suits. In case of a suit by or in the right of the Corporation, a person named in Section 1 shall be indemnified only if: (1) such person conducted themselves in good faith, and (2) reasonably believed: (a) in the case of conduct in their official capacity as a director of the Corporation, that their conduct was in the best interest of the Corporation and (b) in all other cases, that their conduct was at least not opposed to the Corporation's best interests. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a director may not be indemnified for obligations resulting from a proceeding: (1) in which the person is found liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by them or (2) in which the person is found liable to the Corporation.

Section 4. Extent - No Derivative Suits. In case of a suit, action, or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative), other than a suit by or in the right of the Corporation, together hereafter referred to as a nonderivative suit, against a person named in Section 1 by reason of holding a position named in Section 1, the Corporation shall indemnify that person if they satisfy the standard in Section 5 for amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of the no derivative suit including: (1) expenses (including attorneys' fees); (2) amounts paid in settlement; (3) judgments; and (4) fines.

Section 5. Standard - Nonderivative Suits. In case of a nonderivative suit, a person named in Section 1 shall be indemnified only if: (1) they are successful on the merits or otherwise, or (2) they acted in good faith in the transaction which is the subject of the nonderivative suit, and in a manner that they reasonable believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. The determination of a nonderivative suit by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person failed to satisfy the standard of this Section 5, (2). Notwithstanding the foregoing, a person named in Section 1 may not be indemnified for obligations resulting from a proceeding in which the person is found liable on the basis that they improperly received personal benefit.

Section 6. Determination that Standard Has Been Met. A determination that the standard of Section 3 or Section 5 has been satisfied may be made by a court, or the determination may be made by: (1) a majority of the Board (whether or not a quorum) who were not named defendants or respondents to the action, suit, or proceeding, or (2) independent legal counsel (appointed by a majority of the Board of the Corporation whether or not a quorum) in a written opinion, or (3) the sole Shareholder in a vote that excludes the votes of persons named in Section 1 who are named defendants or respondents in the proceeding of the Corporation.

Section 7. Proration. Anyone making a determination under Section 6 may determine that a person has met the standard as to some matters, but not as to others, and may reasonably prorate amounts to be indemnified.

Section 8. Advance Payment. The Corporation may pay in advance any expenses (including attorneys' fees) which may become subject to indemnification under Section 1 through Section 7 if: (1) the Board authorizes the specific payment, and (2) the person receiving the payment undertakes in writing to repay unless it is ultimately determined that they are entitled to indemnification by the Corporation under Section 1 through Section 7.

Section 9. Non-Exclusive and Consistent. The indemnification provided by Section 1 through Section 7 shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which a person may be entitled by law, these By-laws, agreement, a vote of sole Shareholder or disinterested directors, or otherwise. It is not the intent of the Corporation that any provision of this Article XIII be inconsistent with the requirements and limitations provided in the Oklahoma General Corporation Act.

Section 10. Continuation. The indemnification and advance payment provided by Sections 1 through Section 8 shall continue as to a person who has ceased to hold a position named in Section 1 and shall inure to their heirs, executors, and administrators.

Section 11. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who holds or who has held any position named in Section 1 against any liability incurred by such person in any such position or arising out of their status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify them against such liability under Sections 1 through 8.

Section 12. Reports. Indemnification payments, advance payments, and insurance purchases and payments made under Sections 1 through Section 11 shall be reported in writing to the sole Shareholder of the Corporation with or before the notice or waiver of notice of the next sole Shareholder's meeting or with or before the next submission to sole Shareholder of a consent to action without a meeting, and in any case, within twelve (12) months of the indemnification or advance.

Section 13. Public Policy. Nothing contained in this Article XIII, or elsewhere in these Bylaws, shall operate to indemnify any director or officer if such indemnification is contrary to law, either as a matter of public policy, or under the provisions of the Federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any other applicable state or Federal law.

ARTICLE XIV

Records and Reports

Section 1. Books and Records. All books and records provided for by Oklahoma statute shall be open to inspection of the sole Shareholder from time to time upon prior notice to the Executive Officer. The Directors may examine such books and records at all reasonable times.

Section 2. Closing Stock Transfer Books. The Board may close the transfer books, in their discretion, for a period not exceeding fifty (50) days preceding any meeting, annual or special, of the sole shareholder, or the day appointed for the payment of a dividend.

ARTICLE XV

Notices

Section 1. General. Whenever these Bylaws require notice to the Shareholder, or any director, officer or agent, such notice does not mean personal notice. A person may give effective notice under these Bylaws in every case by delivering a written notice thereof personally, or by depositing such notice in the United States mail, in a postage prepaid envelope, directed to them at their address as it appears on the records of the Corporation or by transmitting a notice thereof by email, read receipt requested. An affidavit of the Secretary/Treasurer or of the Transfer Agent of the Corporation that such notice has been given shall constitute, in the absence of fraud, prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. Unless these Bylaws expressly provide to the contrary, the time when the person sends notice shall constitute the time of the giving of notice.

Section 2. Waiver of Notice. Whenever the law or these Bylaws require notice, the person entitled to said notice may waive such notice in writing, either before or after the time stated therein.

ARTICLE XVI

Amendments

Section 1. Power to Amend the Bylaws. These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation subject to approval of the sole Shareholder Association Board. Section 2. Power to Amend the Rules and Regulations. The Rules and Regulations of the Corporation may be altered, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation subject to approval of the sole Shareholder Association Board. When the sole Shareholder has approved amendments or alterations to the Rules and Regulations, the amendments or alterations shall be effective immediately or as stated in the amending resolution.

Section 3. Variance. In the event that any amendments or alterations to the Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations of the Corporation are approved by the Board of Directors of the Corporation but not by the sole Shareholder, the matter shall be submitted to an ad hoc joint conference committee comprised of equal numbers of the Board of Directors of the Corporation and Board of Directors of the Association designated by such bodies. The joint conference shall review the matter and provide a written recommendation to the Board of Directors of the Association. The decision of the Board of Directors of the Association following receipt of the joint conference's recommendation shall be the final decision regarding the amendment.

ARTICLE XVII

Dissolution

In the event the Corporation shall at any time terminate its activities, the Board of Directors of the Corporations shall consider and adopt a plan of liquidation and dissolution with the approval of the Board of Directors of the Association and in accordance with its Certificate of Incorporation.
